

PRESS RELEASE

20111119 Employee / Volunteer of the Year

A recognition picnic for the employees of and volunteers to the City of Woodland and their families was held August 25, 2011 in Horseshoe Lake Park.

The City of Woodland Employee and Volunteer of the Year Award is given annually to the top Employee and Volunteer who have been nominated and voted for by their peers. The City of Woodland is pleased to announce the recipients for 2011.

Brent Murray, a 13 year police officer for the City, was presented the Employee of the Year award by Mayor Blum. Brent's fellow workers described him as dedicated, loyal, honest, friendly, and a person who goes above and beyond what is expected.

Mayor Blum also presented Justin Gordon with the Volunteer of the Year Award. Justin, a volunteer for the Woodland Fire Department for the last 8 years, was also honored by his peers as an honest, dedicated person who puts in many hours and who is one of the most active people in the City.

Congratulations to these two quality individuals who the City of Woodland is fortunate to have among its workforce.
